Here are some comments of some of my private clients and people who have found value in my services as Mindset Development Specialist.

- Alison Weihe - Entrepreneur, Speaker and Author
His Facilitation of our Leadership Team of one of our main companies was masterful and insightful, intuitive and creative, combining the Art and Science of Thinking. I am so honoured to continue to work with a man of this intellect and stature and moral fibre and faith.
- Mandy Smit - Regional Manager FNB Digital Sales and Coverage.
Not only was the training physically and mentally uplifting, but also the most enjoyable team build we have had. We were all challenged, motivated and more committed to our roles after the experience.
- Vanessa Willemse - Provincial Digital Learning Co-ordinator
He is a thorough research expert that presents his content and insights in a way that is exciting, moving and aspirational. If you want to change the way you look at the world, if you want to evolve and be your best you, open yourself up to experience his knowledge, experience and wisdom.

- Angela Chepn'geno - Project Manager, Kenya.
He effectively delivered on the topic of leadership and mindset development at a time that we really needed to adapt to changing times.
- Dr. Wanda Clemmons - CEO Med Paraclete, USA.
This man is filled with wisdom and compassion. His ability to powerfully articulate a concept, ask the right probing questions and help you clarify your vision/purpose is impressive. I believe he is particularly gifted in helping leaders and visionaries conceptualize and put feet to a vision through rigorous objective decision making, thought discipline and expansion of one's growth mindset.
- Charlotte Kemp - Entrepreneur and Futurist.
He has taken an incredibly painful story, made it resonate with his audience and then extracted the science and the models to show us how to develop resilience to cope with our own challenges in life.
